

14th Congress of the European Federation of Societies for Microsurgery

Belgrade ••• May 5–8, 2018

Subject: Invitation letter for attending EFSM Congress as a participant

Dear Colleague,

It is our great pleasure and privilege to inform you that the 14th Congress of European Federation of Societies for Microsurgery (EFSM) will be held from May 5th to 8th 2018 in Hyatt Hotel Belgrade.

The Congress will gather micro surgeons from all European associations as well as micro surgeons and reconstructive surgeons from different countries around the world. One day will be devoted to the Symposium organized by WSRM, chaired by Professor Isao Koshima. Also for the first time the basic microsurgical course will be organized and it will be free of charge for all participants.

The European Federation of Societies for Microsurgery is the only federation that joins together European national microsurgery societies. Their interest is to promote high quality degree of education for their members by permanently increasing their level of knowledge. The First Congress was held in 1992 in Rome, Italy and now in Belgrade we are having the 14th Congress and your presence would be of utmost importance.

On behalf of the Scientific Committee we would like to extend our warmest wishes in inviting you as a participant for this Congress. By accepting this invitation you would increase the scientific level of the meeting. As participant of the Congress you will be awarded a special diploma provided by EFSM.

This letter is made for purpose of issuing visas or obtaining permission for absence from work.
